PACE IS NAMED UM
SPEECH CHAIRMAN

A new associate professor of speech communication at the University of Montana fall quarter has been named chairman of the speech department.

Dr. R. Wayne Pace was named chairman by acting President Robert T. Pantzer.

Dr. Pace holds his B.S. degree from the University of Utah, 1953; M.S., Brigham Young University, 1957; and his Ph.D. from Purdue University, 1960.

He has published numerous articles in professional journals. He was formerly assistant professor at Fresno State College, California; and professor of speech and chairman, Parsons College, Fairfield, Iowa.

Dr. Pace replaces Dr. Edward D. Steele, who resigned his position last summer.
